Hoki (Macruronus novaezelandiae magellanicus)

Industrial Bottom & Semi-pelagic Trawl Net Fishery in the Argentine Sea

Intention to review new information available

Organización Internacional Agropecuaria S.A. (OIA) is currently undertaking the assessment of the Hoki Industrial Bottom & Semi-pelagic Trawl Net Fishery in the Argentine Sea against the Marine Stewardship Council Principles and Criteria for Sustainable Fishing.

As the “last” on-site visit to the Argentina Hoki concluded on November 19th, 2010, and the 9-month period ends on August 19th, is this Certification Body’s intention to review new information available since the initial assessment visits, information collection and scoring of the fishery.

Any stakeholder who would like to provide comments or information to the assessment process is invited to contact OIA. Additional inquires about the certification process may be sent to:
