

World Ocean Day: schools COMPETITION 2021

June 2021 #BigBlueFuture World Ocean Day for Schools competition

COMPETITION: Get creative in your classroom to protect the biodiversity of the ocean

This World Ocean Day, help create a #BigBlueFuture and celebrate the amazing biodiversity in our ocean in your school's blue space by helping your learners create a classroom full of their favourite sea creature, real or imagined! Will it be a dolphin, an octopus, or a fantasy fish? Email us photos of your class artworks at kate.jones@msc.org by 30th June, and one lucky learner will win their sea creature, made into a soft toy – one for them, and another for your school's blue space.

HOW TO ENTER

- Teachers and/or parents and carers are invited to send photographs of children's artworks to kate.jones@msc.org.
- Photos are accepted as attachments in .jpeg or .png format, with a maximum size of 10MB per email.
- Each photo should be titled with the child's first name plus initial of their surname.
- Don't forget to ask permission and include the responsible adult's contact details including contact email, (school) name and address, and postal address.
- Teachers and/or parents and carers could share artworks via a school or other social media account too - be sure to tag @MSCecolabel and include #BigBlueFuture – but please note this does not constitute entry into the competition.
- The competition closes on Wednesday 30th June 2021 at 09:00am BST.
- In the run up to the closing date, MSC may share entries via social media channels, including the name of the school and the first name of the child entering the competition.
- One winner will be selected by a panel of judges across World Ocean Day for Schools partners, and announced on 12th July.

Good luck and we can't wait to see your entries!

RULES

- One winner will be selected - they will win two soft toys commissioned to copy their artwork, one for them and the other for their school.
- By entering this competition, you give MSC permission to use the content on MSC social media platforms.
- Entrants must be 12 or under and can be based in any geographical location (where permitted by law).
- We reserve the right to close the competition early if it becomes necessary to do so due to unforeseen circumstances beyond our control.
- The promoter of this competition is Marine Stewardship Council, of Marine House, 1 Snow Hill, London, EC1A 2DH. This competition is not affiliated with or endorsed by Instagram. For full T&Cs, please visit msc.org/competitions

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Please read these terms and conditions carefully. By participating in this competition, you are deemed to have accepted and agreed to be bound by and comply with these terms and conditions. If you have any questions about these terms and conditions or the competition, please email kate.jones@msc.org. Please allow 5 working days for a reply.

The prize:

The prize consists of two soft toys, one for the winner and one for their school. These will be commissioned and created to match the winning entry of the competition.

How to enter:

For a chance of winning the prize, you must complete all of the following by Wednesday 30th June 2021 at 09:00am BST:

1. Create an artwork – a drawing, painting, picture, sculpture or model – of your favourite sea creature, real or imagined.
2. Teachers and/or parents and carers are invited to upload entries via email to kate.jones@msc.org. Include your contact details including email, school name and address, and postal address.
3. Photos are accepted in jpeg or png format.
4. Each photo should be titled with the child's first name plus initial of their surname. Don't forget to ask permission first to include their entry.

Restrictions on entries:

1. No purchase is necessary to enter this competition but you will need an internet connection and an email account.
2. This competition is open to under 12s only in any geographical location, except for any locations where this competition would be prohibited by law.
3. Entries that do not include all the required information will not be considered.
4. Only one entry per child is permitted.
5. By sending your email address, contact details and postal address to us, you agree to allow us to contact you regarding this competition. We will not add your email to any marketing lists or distribute it to any third party. Data will be deleted once the competition winner has been confirmed.

Our use of your content and data:

By entering this competition, you give us permission to use the content you have submitted on:

1. The @MSCecolabel Instagram, Twitter and Facebook accounts, to encourage more competition entrants before the competition closing date.
2. The @MSCecolabel Instagram, Twitter and Facebook accounts after the closing date, if selected as the winner.

You can object to any of your personal information being published by us by emailing kate.jones@msc.org.

As outlined in the "Winner selection and notification" below, if selected as the winner, we will contact you via email.

Winner selection and notification:

1. The draw will take place within 1 week of the closing date and time; a prize winner will be selected at the judges' discretion.
2. The winner of the competition will be notified within 1 week of the judging via email.
3. We will announce the winner via social media channels detailed above within 1 week of the draw date. If you/your school are selected as the winner and you do not want us to share the first name of the winning child and/or your school name, please tell us when you email the entries in.
4. We will send your school its prizes within 90 days.

Further terms and conditions:

1. The promoter of this competition is Marine Stewardship Council, of Marine House, 1 Snow Hill, London, EC1A 2DH (MSC) and all references to "us", "we" or "our" mean MSC.
2. The prize cannot be changed.
3. The prize cannot be sold or exchanged for the cash equivalent or for an alternative in any circumstances. We reserve the right to substitute an alternative prize of equal or greater value.
4. All costs and expenses not included within the prizes are the responsibility of the winner.
5. The MSC:
 - a. May require a teacher or parent / carer to verify the age of the entrant before providing the prize to them, to confirm that they were eligible to enter the competition and win the prize.
 - b. Reserves the right to alter, amend or otherwise change the terms of the competition in exceptional circumstances to protect the interest of entrants without prior notification. For example, in foreseen circumstances.
 - c. Accepts no responsibility for entries not successfully completed due to a technical fault.
 - d. Accepts no responsibility for inaccurate prize details supplied to any entrant by any third party connected with this competition.
 - e. Reserves the right to refuse entry or refuse to award a prize to anyone who it reasonably suspects is in breach of these terms and conditions or who posts anything on social media in connection with this competition (or tags MSC in any post) that is, in MSC's reasonable opinion, inappropriate, offensive, defamatory or upsetting to other participants, contrary to applicable law or Instagram's terms of use.
6. The competition and these terms and conditions, and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with them, are governed by English law. However, as a consumer, you will benefit from any mandatory provisions of the law of the country in which you are resident. Nothing in these terms and conditions, including the paragraph above, affects a participant's rights as a consumer to rely on such mandatory provisions of local law.
7. Any dispute relating to the competition and these terms and conditions will be subject to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
8. The competition is promoted by the MSC and its partner World Ocean Day for Schools. You acknowledge that they shall not have any liability in connection with the competition.
9. If we fail to comply with these terms and conditions, we will be responsible for loss or damage you suffer that is a foreseeable result of our breach of these terms and conditions or our negligence, but we are not responsible for any loss or damage that is not foreseeable. Loss or damage is foreseeable if they were an obvious consequence of the promoter's breach or if they were contemplated by you and us at the time that you entered the promotion.

